About us

Magdalene College is one of 31 Colleges in the University of Cambridge and was re-founded by Thomas, Lord Audley in 1542. The College occupies a delightful riverside site and has an eclectic range of buildings dating from the fifteenth to the twenty-first centuries, including the Pepys Building, one of the more attractive in Cambridge. The College is home to a community of some 80 Fellows and 500 students, around 450 of which are housed in College-owned or College-managed accommodation. The College employs around 110 staff.

The College exists to provide and promote undergraduate and graduate education within the University of Cambridge, and also to provide and promote academic research. In support of these objectives, the College has various permanently endowed trust funds held for special purposes in connection with the development of College facilities, for scholarships and bursaries and for other educational purposes.
