Magdalene College will be opening its doors to potential applicants, offer holders and their supporters on March 16th for the subjects listed below. We will be running tours of the College and you will have a chance to meet Fellows, current students and Admissions staff. The College will be open from 9am to 6pm for visitors, and there will be an information point manned by Admissions Office staff throughout the day in the Parlour – if you need directions please just ask at the Porters’ Lodge. Sandy Mill, our Schools Liaison Officer, will be leading tours of the College at 10am, 1pm and 3pm.

There will also be subject specific events throughout the day in College and at the relevant Faculties, please see the descriptions below for more details.

We are delighted you are considering applying or are coming to Magdalene College, and we look forward to welcoming you on the day. If you have any queries in the meantime, please email admissions@magd.cam.ac.uk. There is no need to book ahead for any of the College events.

Asian and Middle Eastern Studies (AMES)

Magdalene’s Director of Studies, Professor Amira Bennison, is the Head of Department for Middle Eastern studies, and will be leading a session at the Faculty between 10.15 and 11.30am.

Information on the events which will be taking place at the AMES Faculty is available on this webpage.

You can find out more about studying AMES at Cambridge here, and at Magdalene here.

Classics

Our Director of Studies, Dr John Patterson will be available to answer questions between 12noon - 1pm and 2pm - 4pm in Benson Hall.

You can find out more about studying Classics at Cambridge here, and at Magdalene here.

Geography

Magdalene’s Director of Studies, Professor Tom Spencer, will be available to answer questions between 11am -1pm in College. To get directions to his office, please report to the Parlour (you can get directions to the Parlour from the Porters’ Lodge).

You can find out more about studying Geography at Cambridge here, and at Magdalene here.

History

Magdalene’s Director of Studies, Dr Christina Skott, will be available to answer questions between 11am -1pm in College.

You can find out more about studying History at Cambridge here, and at Magdalene here.

Human, Social, and Political Sciences (HSPS)

Magdalene’s Director of Studies for Social Anthropology, Dr Nicholas James, will be available to answer questions between 11am -1pm in the Parlour.

You can find out more about studying HSPS at Cambridge here, and at Magdalene here.
Law

Our Director of Studies, Dr Neil Jones will be available between 11am and 1pm to answer questions. To get directions to his office, please report to the Parlour (you can get directions to the Parlour from the Porters’ Lodge).

You can find out more about studying Law at Cambridge here, and at Magdalene here.

Linguistics

Magdalene’s Director of Studies, Dr Theresa Biberauer, will be available to answer questions between 2.30 and 4.30pm in the Parlour.

Information on the events which will be taking place at the Linguistics Department is available on this webpage.

You can find out more about studying Linguistics at Cambridge here, and at Magdalene here.

Medieval and Modern Languages (MML)

Magdalene has two Directors of Studies. Dr Hugo Azerad will be available to answer questions between 2.30 and 4.30pm and Ms Silke Mentchen will be available between 11am and 12:30pm and again between 4pm and 5pm. To get directions to their offices, please report to the Parlour (you can get directions to the Parlour from the Porters’ Lodge).

Information on the events which will be taking place at the MML faculty is available on this webpage.

You can find out more about studying MML at Cambridge here, and at Magdalene here.

Music

Magdalene’s Director of Studies, Dr Daniel Trocmé-Latter, will be available to answer questions between 12noon and 1pm in the Parlour.

You can find out more about studying Music at Cambridge here, and at Magdalene here.

Natural Sciences

Our Director of Studies for Biological Natural Sciences, Dr Claire Brasted-Pike will be available to answer questions between 10am and 11am in the Parlour.

Our Director of Studies for Physical Natural Sciences / Chemistry, Dr Alex Thom will be available to answer questions between 12noon and 1pm, and 1.45pm - 2.45pm in College.

You can find out more about studying Natural Sciences at Cambridge here, and at Magdalene here.