The Summer programme of special one-day exhibitions is as follows:

6th June 2019: MANUSCRIPT FRAGMENTS AND WASTE. Waste material from discarded manuscripts and books were often used to make new book bindings. This exhibition will display such waste material that is evident in the Old Library's collection.

4th July 2019: MARY ASTELL'S BOOKS. The Library has a collection of books by the 17th century feminist author Mary Astell, which will be displayed alongside books from Astell's personal library containing her handwritten inscriptions.

1st August 2019: SIR EDWIN LUTYENS AND MAGDALENE COLLEGE. A celebration of Sir Edwin Lutyens's 150th anniversary with a look at his beautiful designs for Magdalene College's Benson Court built in 1928.

5th September 2019: KEEPING A DIARY. A selection of some of the wonderful 19th and 20th diaries held by the Archive and Special Collections offers a glimpse into the private lives of notable figures including AC Benson, Dean Inge and Dorothea Richards.
