The College

Magdalene College, (pronounced “Maudlin”) is one of the Colleges of the University of Cambridge. It was originally founded in 1428 and re-founded in 1542. Although we are rightly proud of our history, we are a thoroughly modern and forward-looking College. There are about 500 junior members of whom approx 330 are undergraduates and 170 are postgraduates. There are 40 Fellows, headed by the Master, who make up the Governing Body of the College and also 13 Research Fellows.

On the non-academic side, there are approximately 105 employees in all, split between the various departments of the College, including Porters, Domestic staff, Maintenance, Conference and Catering, College Office and Tutorial staff.

Further details of the College are available on: the College’s Website: http://www.magd.cam.ac.uk

The Porters’ Lodge

The main Porters’ Lodge is based in Magdalene Street and is staffed 24 hours per day, 365 days a year. The Porters’ Lodge is the reception point for visitors and it is essential that our porters are polite, helpful and welcoming to all who need assistance.
