How we use your personal information

-- Pre-applicants and outreach attendees (student)

Because applicants for student places at Magdalene College, and those attending pre-application events, may eventually join either Magdalene College or another College, Cambridge University has prepared a data protection policy to explain how data will be used and protected. Data protection statements, which apply to Magdalene College, can be found using the links below.

The applicant data protection statement, for both undergraduates and postgraduates, is at:

How we use your personal information \(for applicants\) | Information Compliance \(cam.ac.uk\)

The data protection statement for participation in pre-applicant events for postgraduate students is at:

How we use participant data | Postgraduate Admissions \(cam.ac.uk\)

The data protection statement for participation in pre-applicant events for undergraduate students is at:

Participant data and booking policies | Undergraduate Study \(cam.ac.uk\)
